

BARCELONA

DRUPALCON 2015

DrupalCon brings together thousands of people from across the globe who use, develop, design, and support the Drupal platform.

DrupalCon is the heartbeat of the Drupal community. It's where improvements to the project are made, where important business connections are built, and where lifelong friendships bloom. Three times a year, the Drupal community gathers in North America, Europe, and a third geographic region, for a full week dedicated to sharing and growing Drupal skills.

Taking place in sunny Barcelona, Spain this year, DrupalCon Barcelona will feature a full schedule of educational, networking, and contribution opportunities.

Together we will unite in celebration and work together to gain new skills and new friends as we advance the Drupal project.

DrupalCon Barcelona will be held 21 - 25 September, 2015 at the CCIB in Barcelona, Spain.

What Happens At DrupalCon?

DrupalCon is where some of the web's leading knowledge experts from within and outside of the Drupal community gather to share knowledge.

Keynotes

Dries Buytaert, Drupal founder and project lead as he presents the traditional Driesnote, which covers the current state of Drupal and the web. Other web and digital space thought leaders give Wednesday and Thursday keynotes.

Session Tracks

Tracks are a series of sessions sorted by topic, which span in experience level from beginner to advanced. Sessions are 60 minutes unless otherwise noted. Tracks are as follows: Business and Strategy, Business Showcase, Coding and Development, Content Strategy, Core Conversations, DevOps, Drupal.org, Frontend, PHP, Project Management, Site Building, and Symfony.

BOF Sessions

Birds of a Feather sessions (or BOFs) are informal gatherings of conference attendees who wish to discuss a certain topic without a pre-planned agenda.

Sprints

Sprints are an important part of Drupal's growth, and are where change is made. There are many sprints scheduled before, during, and after DrupalCon, and they are attended by hundreds of Drupal community members.

Monday at DrupalCon

Drupal Training

We will be offering seven full-day professional Drupal training courses on Monday, 21 September. These courses will cover a variety of topics for users of beginner, intermediate, and advanced experience levels. Tickets are 500€ +VAT

First Time Attendee Social

To help ease newcomers into DrupalCon, we've put together an orientation designed to explain all DrupalCon's many moving parts and introduce attendees to new friends and mentors.

Business Summit

The Business Summit is a one-day business event on Monday, 21 September. This event is designed for business leaders already using Drupal. The full-day summit includes a light breakfast, lunch, breaks, and an afternoon cocktail hour. Tickets are 199€ +VAT

Community Summit

The Community Summit is a full day of community project work on Monday, 21 September. This event is for active Drupal community leaders and Drupal event organizers. This event is free to attend, however registration is required.

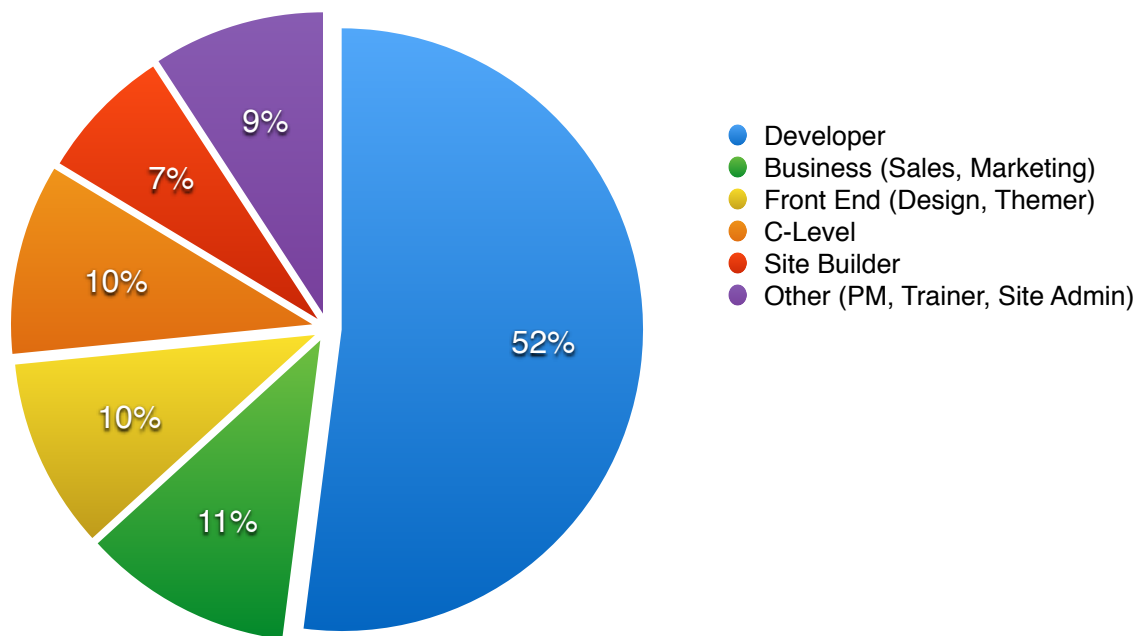

Attendee Demographics

Learn a little about our typical European audience.

This information is gathered from DrupalCon Amsterdam (2014) and DrupalCon Prague (2013) survey and registration questions.

Who are we?

Of the 2,370 attendees at DrupalCon Amsterdam, 11% chose to self-identify as female, while 87% of attendees to that same event self-identified as male. They work in the following roles:

76% of DrupalCon Amsterdam attendees were seeking intermediate or advanced content.

Tickets

DrupalCon remains one of the most affordable tech conferences around thanks to support from our generous sponsors. Ticket prices change at 23:59 Barcelona local time (UTC +2) on the dates below.
