Hey James,

I hope your trip is going well! I wanted to introduce you to Zack Rosen. He is building a hosting platform and wanted to pick your brain.

See you soon,

-Alex

Alex, thank you.

James, pleased to 'meet' you.

I run a Drupal consultancy here in San Francisco:

And a bicycle company:

<http://www.missionbicycle.com/>

And sigh, am currently in the early stages of launching a hosting / developer tool service for Drupal that is fairly similar to what you folks are rocking for Ruby on Rails at Heroku. At the moment we're working on crazy fast server images available on EC2:

<http://getpantheon.com/>

....but will be launching a real service shortly.

Any chance I could bribe you with beers or lunch? I would indeed love to pick your brain.

Thanks Alex. [removed by bcc]

Zack - good to meet you - sounds like you're up to some fun stuff. It just so happens I was staying in a hotel at the Pantheon a few days ago...

Happy to meet and chat. I'm out of town for a bit; how about coffee in SOMA at 3pm on Tuesday, Nov 17?

- James

P.S. Mission Bicycle is AWESOME.
